helpful hints:

When you're going around Mt. Wrightson be sure to bring at least two full water bottles, as there are times that you won't see any water stops for miles. Traveling in a clockwise direction from Sahuarita will get the hills out of the way early. Be sure to stop in Patagonia for lunch. The Ovens of Patagonia has some of the most incredible pastries, jellies and gourmet dishes in southern Arizona. They are bicycle friendly and will even fill up your bottles with ice water.
